

I just wanted to let you know that I hope you do not revise the no call list. This has been one of the most wonderful things to ever happen to my family. We can actually spend quality time together and it has freed my and my husbands time up to help our children with homework and learn. We have been able to have meals together without the interruption of the telephone and that has been wonderful as well. I really hope you reconsider your thoughts on revising the no-call list.
